Amy Miller joins Waterford

BISMARCK, N.D. — Amy Miller has been named life enrichment director at Waterford on West Century. In this role, she will be responsible for planning, directing and supervising Waterford's national award-winning Life Enrichment/Wellness program, which support the physical, cognitive, social and spiritual needs of Waterford residents.

Prior to joining Waterford, Miller owned and operated the Minot company Preserved Petals, which sold gifts and freeze-dried flowers. Before that, she was a licensed funeral director for 10 years.

Miller has been active in the community. She is a former president and secretary of the Plum Valley Lions, served as a founding member of the citizens' group Greater Expectations for Minot and participated in the 2004 Mayor's Steering Committee. In 2001, she was nominated for the YWCA Woman of Distinction Award.

Waterford on West Century offers a range of homes and lifestyle options for people 55-plus years. An on-site health and fitness club is open to anyone over 40 and features a variety of fitness options. For more information, visit WaterfordBismarck.com
