Waterford book fair coincides with international and national book and literacy celebrations

BISMARCK, N.D. — This month, The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization celebrates International Literacy Day, and The Library of Congress will oversee the National Book Festival. Locally, Waterford on West Century invites people to attend the Book Fair and Open House Thursday, Sept. 27. The event goes from 1 to 4:30 p.m. at 1000 West Century Ave. in Bismarck.

“With other international and national groups focusing on literacy, we wanted to celebrate lifelong learning and have people come share their love of books,” says Life Enrichment Director Kaye Knudson, who points out that proceeds from the book fair will benefit the Touchmark Foundation, which supports programs that assist older adults.

During the event, people can listen to music by St. Mary’s Central High School jazz ensemble, meet two local authors during their book signings, enjoy hors d’oeuvres and smoothies and tour Waterford’s model homes.

There is no charge for the event. For more information, people can call Kaye Knudson at 701-323-7000.

Waterford offers resort-style living to those 55-plus and is home to more than 150 people. The community offers a wide range of homes and lifestyle options. An on-site health and fitness club is open to anyone over 40 and features a variety of fitness options.
